CPE Code Definitions

1. Remotely Delivered CPE courses will be accepted when Reasonable and Reliable Attendance Verification Mechanisms include but are not necessarily limited to: requiring a multi-part code with different parts of the code revealed at different points of the presentation; using interactive test questions or polling questions; using pop-up screens that require the user to click to affirm continued attendance. CPAs are subject to disciplinary action by the Board for falsifying their attendance at any CPE, including at remotely delivered CPEs. CPAs are required to maintain documentation to certify their attendance at remotely delivered CPEs, which must be produced in the event of an audit.
2. Formal teaching (yourself) as instructor or speaker and publication of professional books or articles - limit of 60 hours over 3 years for each
3. Courses devoted to practice development and management skills (non-accounting CPE) - limit of 24 hours over 3 years
4. Ethics-Not less than six (6) hours of the 120 shall be devoted to professional ethics.
5. In person CPE courses-Educational instruction or training in the subjects listed in § 1.8.2 of this Part will qualify for CPE if the instruction is a formal program of learning that contributes directly to the professional competence of a CPA or PA after he or she has been issued a permit to practice public accounting. In order to qualify for CPE credit hours, the program must be primarily directed to enhancing the professional competence of accountants or like professionals.

All subject matter is conditional on limitations in Practice Development and Management Skills
