On or about March 1, 2022 , you were provided with notice that the Rhode Island Contractors' Registration and Licensing Board determined that you were in violation of the following section(s) of Rhode Island General Law and intended to assess civil penalties as proposed

Violation

5-65-10(a)(10) - Performed work, or arranged to perform work, without a valid registration.

Violation Penalty

1,000

Description

On March 1, 2022 at approximately 12:30 p.m I was performing an inspection and visited the job site under building permit 36094 and saw two individuals working onsite.

One individual later identified as Robert Allen Jr thru drivers license presented to me CT License number 207066888 and stated to me that he was working as a sub contractor to Shamrock Builders GC 13885 and he was not registered as a contractor (Robert Allen Jr).

He did state to me that he was in the process but is light on funds to complete the process, Robert was advised that he will be receiving a violation and to become registered.

Fine amount: $1,000

Because you did not request a hearing within the time allowed, the Proposed Order has converted to a Final Order. The fines, as listed above, are now due and payable. If payment is not received within twenty (20) days, your case may be referred to the Office of the Attorney General for criminal prosecution pursuant to RIGL § 5-65-19.

Alternatively, you may appeal this Final Order in writing, within twenty (20) days of the date of this mailing to the Contractors' Registration and Licensing Board. For additional information, please see our website at www.crb.ri.gov, or contact us by telephone at (401) 921-1590.
