Letter of Good Standing/Certificate of Licensure Requests Now Online!

Real Estate Brokers, Corporations, and Salespersons looking to obtain a Letter of Good Standing - commonly referred to as a Certificate of Licensure in other jurisdictions - can now do so online at our eLicensing website.

Do not create a new account; you already have one!

If you have forgotten your username and/or password to access the eLicensing site, they can be recovered emailing our Real Estate Section at DBR.REInquiry@dbr.ri.gov. Please note: Do not use the Credential ID and PIN provided with the renewal notice which was emailed.

Part of the online application requests an email address for the Real Estate Section to send the Letter of Good Standing / Certificate of Licensure to, and which jurisdiction you need the letter addressed to. Be advised, the Real Estate Section only sends Letters of Good Standing / Certificates of Licensure via email to the requesting person and not the jurisdiction.
