FOREWORD

Our Market Conduct Examination Report is, in general, a report by exception. Information relating to practices, procedures, and/or files subject to review during our examination has been omitted from the report if errors and/or improprieties were not evidenced.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Authority for this examination is provided by R.I. Gen. Laws §27-13-1 and §27-13.1-3. The examination covered the period from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008, and was conducted in accordance with standards established by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, and procedures developed by the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation, Insurance Division.

The line of business reviewed was Private Passenger Automobile. The examination encompassed a review of the following areas: cancellations, nonrenewals and premium installment plans.

The primary purpose of the examination was to evaluate the Company’s compliance with Rhode Island General Laws and Insurance Regulations, and to determine whether Rhode Island insureds and claimants were being treated equitably. The test work performed during the examination satisfied this purpose, and forms the basis for the findings and recommendations presented in this report. The examination consisted of verification and evaluation, on a test basis, of information contained in the insurer’s files.

Private Passenger Automobile Premium Installment

A review of the Company’s private passenger automobile premium installment practices during the period under examination was conducted to determine whether the Company complied with the applicable provisions of R.I. Gen. Laws §27-29-13.

The Company provided the examiners with a listing of 2,910 premium installments payments that were processed for the period under examination. The examiners selected 50 premium installments files for review based on NAIC sampling criteria. Based on the examination work performed, the examiners noted that the company did not offer a ten payment installment plan on its twelve month policies, as required by R. I. Gen. Laws §27-29-13.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Company provide to its insureds the ten payment premium installments payment option with a 15% maximum down payment at the time of issue. In addition, the company should provide the Department with notification of the date that this option takes effect.
CONCLUSION

We have applied verification procedures to the data contained in this report using both subjective and statistical sampling techniques as deemed appropriate. While sampling techniques do not give complete assurance that all errors and irregularities will be detected, those that were detected during the course of this examination have been disclosed in this report. We were not informed of, and did not become aware of any other error or irregularity that could have a material effect on the market conduct condition of the Company as presented in this report.

Respectfully submitted,
